

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAMS

[PER PRESS ASSOCIATION, BY "ECHO" PRIVATE WIRE.]

THE CHINESE CRISIS.

ALLIES' FIRM ATTITUDE. Chinese Cowed by Threat of Warships' Guns. Foreigners Evacuated From Hankin. Ugly Situation Further Up River.

...The British and American Admirals, who threatened to bombard Shanghai, are being forced to permit the evacuation of the foreigners...

...Major Spreading up River. A wireless message from Shanghai...

...American Killjoys at Hankin. The situation at Hankin, which is...

...Outbreak at Pochow. A serious and ugly situation has...

...Southern City at Shanghai. General Chang Kai-shek, Chief of the Southern Army, has arrived...

...The Situation Reviewed. The British and American warships...

...OVER £2,000 COPE. Bank Manager Sentenced.

...FIRE MYSTERY UNSOLVED. A SOUTHPORT MYSTERY.

...Inquest on Two Victims. The bodies of the two men were...

...The Big Race. Film in London Before Spectators Left the Course.

...BLOOMERS TRAGEDY. Man Found Shot in Hedges.

...SPORTING JOURNALIST. Death of Mr. Mussabini.

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

...Mussabini. Mr. S. P. Mussabini, a well-known sportsman...

To-Day's Football.

THE ENGLISH CUP. CARDIFF AND ARSENAL PASS INTO THE FINAL.

Semi-Final Ties. Arsenal v. Southampton.

At Stamford Bridge the Arsenal and Southampton teams met to decide which should appear at Wembley in the final on April 28.

The London club had twice before reached the semi-final of the cup, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

In the previous carrying of the cup, the Arsenal had been defeated by the Southampton team, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

At Stamford Bridge the Arsenal and Southampton teams met to decide which should appear at Wembley in the final on April 28.

The London club had twice before reached the semi-final of the cup, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

In the previous carrying of the cup, the Arsenal had been defeated by the Southampton team, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

At Stamford Bridge the Arsenal and Southampton teams met to decide which should appear at Wembley in the final on April 28.

The London club had twice before reached the semi-final of the cup, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

In the previous carrying of the cup, the Arsenal had been defeated by the Southampton team, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

At Stamford Bridge the Arsenal and Southampton teams met to decide which should appear at Wembley in the final on April 28.

The London club had twice before reached the semi-final of the cup, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

In the previous carrying of the cup, the Arsenal had been defeated by the Southampton team, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

At Stamford Bridge the Arsenal and Southampton teams met to decide which should appear at Wembley in the final on April 28.

The London club had twice before reached the semi-final of the cup, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

In the previous carrying of the cup, the Arsenal had been defeated by the Southampton team, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

At Stamford Bridge the Arsenal and Southampton teams met to decide which should appear at Wembley in the final on April 28.

The London club had twice before reached the semi-final of the cup, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

In the previous carrying of the cup, the Arsenal had been defeated by the Southampton team, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

At Stamford Bridge the Arsenal and Southampton teams met to decide which should appear at Wembley in the final on April 28.

The London club had twice before reached the semi-final of the cup, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

In the previous carrying of the cup, the Arsenal had been defeated by the Southampton team, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

At Stamford Bridge the Arsenal and Southampton teams met to decide which should appear at Wembley in the final on April 28.

The London club had twice before reached the semi-final of the cup, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

In the previous carrying of the cup, the Arsenal had been defeated by the Southampton team, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

At Stamford Bridge the Arsenal and Southampton teams met to decide which should appear at Wembley in the final on April 28.

The London club had twice before reached the semi-final of the cup, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

In the previous carrying of the cup, the Arsenal had been defeated by the Southampton team, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

At Stamford Bridge the Arsenal and Southampton teams met to decide which should appear at Wembley in the final on April 28.

The London club had twice before reached the semi-final of the cup, but this time they were to meet the team which had won the cup in 1914.

THE ENGLISH CUP.

Semi-Final Results. Arsenal 2 Southampton 1 (Played at Chelsea).

Cardiff City 3 Reading 0 (Played at Waterbury).

ENGLISH LEAGUE FINALS.

Division I. Leicester 1 Derby County 1.

Stamford 3 Leeds Utd 2.

Sheff Wed 2 Manchester Utd 0.

W. Bromwich 4 Newcastle Utd 2.

Division II. Darlington 2 Clapton 0.

Manchester C 4 Notts 1.

Totes Forest 3 Hull City 1.

Oldham A 4 Walsingham 1.

Swansea Town 2 South Shields 0.

League III (Southern Section). Coventry 1 Norwich 0.

Johnstown 0 Millwall 1.

Gillingham 0 Merthyr T 1.

Trinity City 1 Brentford 0.

Leeds 1 Lincoln City 1.

Bradford 4 Hartlepool Utd 1.

Chesham 2 Halifax 1.

New Brighton 0 Accrington S 1.

Walsall Utd 1 Stockport C 2.

Rotherham 2 Crewe A 3.

Cheltenham Hospital Cup.

Alderton and St. Mark's Meet in the Final.

Division of the Cheltenham League, Alderton and St. Mark's met in the final of the Cheltenham Hospital Cup on Saturday.

The match was a close one, but Alderton emerged victorious by a score of 2-1.

The goal was scored by Alderton's forward, who was well served by his half-backs.

St. Mark's played well, but their attack was hampered by Alderton's defence.

The referee was Mr. J. G. Jones, who officiated well throughout the match.

The match was well attended, and the spectators enjoyed the contest.

The result is a fair one, and Alderton are to be congratulated on their success.

The match was a good one, and the spectators were well entertained.

The result is a fair one, and Alderton are to be congratulated on their success.

The match was well attended, and the spectators enjoyed the contest.

The referee was Mr. J. G. Jones, who officiated well throughout the match.

The match was a close one, but Alderton emerged victorious by a score of 2-1.

The goal was scored by Alderton's forward, who was well served by his half-backs.

St. Mark's played well, but their attack was hampered by Alderton's defence.

The referee was Mr. J. G. Jones, who officiated well throughout the match.

The match was well attended, and the spectators enjoyed the contest.

The result is a fair one, and Alderton are to be congratulated on their success.

The match was a good one, and the spectators were well entertained.

The result is a fair one, and Alderton are to be congratulated on their success.

The match was well attended, and the spectators enjoyed the contest.

The referee was Mr. J. G. Jones, who officiated well throughout the match.

The match was a close one, but Alderton emerged victorious by a score of 2-1.

The goal was scored by Alderton's forward, who was well served by his half-backs.

St. Mark's played well, but their attack was hampered by Alderton's defence.

The referee was Mr. J. G. Jones, who officiated well throughout the match.

The match was well attended, and the spectators enjoyed the contest.

The result is a fair one, and Alderton are to be congratulated on their success.

The match was a good one, and the spectators were well entertained.

The result is a fair one, and Alderton are to be congratulated on their success.

The match was well attended, and the spectators enjoyed the contest.

The referee was Mr. J. G. Jones, who officiated well throughout the match.

The match was a close one, but Alderton emerged victorious by a score of 2-1.

The goal was scored by Alderton's forward, who was well served by his half-backs.

St. Mark's played well, but their attack was hampered by Alderton's defence.

The referee was Mr. J. G. Jones, who officiated well throughout the match.

The match was well attended, and the spectators enjoyed the contest.

The result is a fair one, and Alderton are to be congratulated on their success.

The match was a good one, and the spectators were well entertained.

The result is a fair one, and Alderton are to be congratulated on their success.

The match was well attended, and the spectators enjoyed the contest.

The referee was Mr. J. G. Jones, who officiated well throughout the match.

The match was a close one, but Alderton emerged victorious by a score of 2-1.

The goal was scored by Alderton's forward, who was well served by his half-backs.

St. Mark's played well, but their attack was hampered by Alderton's defence.

The referee was Mr. J. G. Jones, who officiated well throughout the match.

The match was well attended, and the spectators enjoyed the contest.

The result is a fair one, and Alderton are to be congratulated on their success.

The match was a good one, and the spectators were well entertained.

The result is a fair one, and Alderton are to be congratulated on their success.

To-Day's Racing.

LIVERPOOL. Liverpool was the only race meeting in the country on Saturday.

The weather was fine, and the race was well attended.

The first race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The second race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The third race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The fourth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The fifth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The sixth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The seventh race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The eighth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The ninth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The tenth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The eleventh race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The twelfth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The thirteenth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The fourteenth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The fifteenth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The sixteenth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The seventeenth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The eighteenth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The nineteenth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The twentieth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The twenty-first race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The twenty-second race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The twenty-third race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The twenty-fourth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The twenty-fifth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The twenty-sixth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The twenty-seventh race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The twenty-eighth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The twenty-ninth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The thirtieth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The thirty-first race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The thirty-second race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The thirty-third race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The thirty-fourth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The thirty-fifth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The thirty-sixth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The thirty-seventh race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The thirty-eighth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The thirty-ninth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The fortieth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The forty-first race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The forty-second race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The forty-third race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The forty-fourth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The forty-fifth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The forty-sixth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The forty-seventh race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The forty-eighth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The forty-ninth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The fiftieth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The fifty-first race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The fifty-second race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The fifty-third race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The fifty-fourth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The fifty-fifth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The fifty-sixth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The fifty-seventh race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The fifty-eighth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The fifty-ninth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The sixtieth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The sixty-first race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The sixty-second race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The sixty-third race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The sixty-fourth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The sixty-fifth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The sixty-sixth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The sixty-seventh race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The sixty-eighth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The sixty-ninth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The seventieth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The seventy-first race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The seventy-second race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The seventy-third race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The seventy-fourth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The seventy-fifth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The seventy-sixth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The seventy-seventh race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

To-Day's Athletics.

Inter-Varsity Best Oxford.

Cambridge Best Oxford.

The annual athletic meeting between Oxford and Cambridge was held on Saturday.

The weather was fine, and the race was well attended.

The first race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The second race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The third race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The fourth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The fifth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The sixth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The seventh race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The eighth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The ninth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The tenth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The eleventh race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The twelfth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The thirteenth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The fourteenth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The fifteenth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The sixteenth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The seventeenth race was won by the favourite, who was well served by his jockey.

The eighteenth race was a close one, but the favourite emerged victorious.

The nineteenth race was won by the favourite, who